1. The Administration for Soviet Property in Germany (USIG) is now located in Berlin-Karlshorst, Waldow Allee 30-36, just outside the Soviet compound, at the corner of Am Rolandseck. The USIG garage is located behind the race-track in Karlshorst. Debenin's office is located at Waldow Allee 35. He is currently on leave. The USIG Procurement Section (ZVK) is located at Waldow Allee 32. There is no longer any sharp separation between German and Soviet employees of USIG, as there had been at the former quarters in Berlin-Weissensee.
2. There is no longer a Wismut representative on the USIG premises. That office is now located inside the Karlshorst compound.
3. USIG recently sold 21 of its motor vehicles and discharged a corresponding number of its German drivers, since the move to Karlshorst made it unnecessary to maintain such a large motor pool.
4. A country club is maintained in Trebbin, south of Berlin, where USIG Soviet personnel spend their week-ends.
5. Horst Kirwas, formerly of the USIG commercial section, left his job at USIG in the summer of 1952 and reportedly went to work for a Swiss trading firm located in East Berlin.
6. The Procurement Section of USIG (ZVK) consists of twenty German employees:
 Director: Feuker (fnu)
 Group Chief for Metallurgy: Graefe (fnu)
 Group Chief for Nonferrous Metals: Ruhl (fnu)
 Group Chief for Chemicals: Guettler (fnu)
 Group Chief for Auxiliary Materials: Sikorsky (fnu)
 Group Chief for Machinery, Electrical Goods, and Optics: Radtke (fnu)

The following are Soviet personnel:

Director: Galanov (fnu)
 Metallurgy: Ageyev (fnu)
 Chemicals and Auxiliary Materials: Donskoy (fnu)
 Deputy Chief, responsible for nonferrous metals and machinery: Astaskov (fnu)

7. Otto Mueller is chief of the USIG Labor Section; he succeeded Tisner.
